

FREE BOOK SWAP
Saturday, November 19, 2016

9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Wayne County Park Street Complex
Honesdale, PA

Dear neighbor,

Since 2012, the America Recycles Day Free Book Swap has processed more than 25,000 books. It's a one-day event that brings a dusty NASA science book home to a starry eyed ten-year-old, a brand new copy of the DaVinci Code for the local library, or ten years of National Geographic magazines to students for an art project. Books left over from the event are donated to Better World Books, an organization supporting global literacy efforts.

Your support is needed to be able to offer this event free to the public and get each book into its own next chapter:
